Curriculum Summary:

Hebrew Reading and language

At Hebrew for Kids, we strive to provide the highest standard of Hebrew language study in the limited amount of time. In all classes, children immerse in the Hebrew language. Each class incorporates the four strands of language acquisition,

- reading
- writing

Our focus is to impart relevant Hebrew language skills integrated with Jewish studies. This allows the children to practically apply the language into appropriate areas of their lives. We incorporate two programs:

Children are welcome to wear appropriate clothing of their choice.

Shirts and shoes are mandatory.

Kippahs/ Yarmalkahs are provided at Hebrew for Kids and the boys are encouraged to wear them during class and prayers.

Tzedakah / Charity

Tzedakah is a basic concept in Judaism. Our Hebrew School attempts to develop a commitment amongst our students to share with others less fortunate by donating a few pennies a day to charity. Please provide your child with a coin for Tzedakah.

We will provide for those children who forget to bring. You may want to encourage your child to take from their allowance. At the culmination of the year we will send the Tzedakah to a specific charity so the children can see what they have accomplished.

Mitzvah Notes - Random Acts of Goodness and Kindness

A mitzvah note is a note describing a good deed your child has done. Each classroom has a Mitzvah tree that the notes are hung on. The children love to share their personal experiences and acts of kindness with their friends. Let's watch our tree grow!

School wide incentive programs:

Tickets are distributed randomly to reward good behavior. Each child has their own ticket bag or box to collect their tickets. Periodically over the year we set up a "store" where the children can buy prizes for their well-earned tickets.

Homework & Parental Participation

Homework is not mandatory but is greatly encouraged! We fully understand and appreciate the other academic responsibilities of the students. However in order for your child to retain the reading skills they learned in school, please encourage them to practice his / her reading at least 10 minutes each night.

Kids Shabbat and Birthday Bash

To appreciate and understand the prayers and rituals, children are encouraged to attend Shabbat services.

We have a weekly Kids Pray 'n Play Shabbat program which includes: games, stories, prayers, Kiddush, challah and healthy snacks. The program concludes in a choral performance for the whole congregation.

Our monthly Kids Shabbat is a big event!

It includes the usual fun and games of kids Pray 'n Play and adds a big birthday celebration for all the children who celebrate their birthday that month!

It is not mandatory but greatly appreciated.

Snack Criteria:
