

TIPS FOR THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL

Welcome to the Downtown Jewish Preschool!

The first day of school is an exciting milestone in your child's life. Your child is embarking on a journey that will lead them on many roads of discovery and learning. As wonderful as this new experience may be, it can also be quite stressful for the young child. New situations and change can at times be unsettling for all of us. For many children this may be their first experience of separation from parents or caregivers at home. It is common for even the most outgoing child to be anxious the first day of school.

We have provided a few suggestions for assisting your child during this time.

- Prepare your child for the new school experience by explaining what to expect. Answer all questions directly and honestly. Read through the drop off and pick up guidelines so you are familiar with them as well.
- Convey a positive attitude. Young children are aware of your feelings. Your enthusiasm will assure the child that school can be a fun and exciting place.
- Establish a routine involving both the night before a school day, as well as morning preparation. Rituals and routines will add predictability and are comforting in unfamiliar situations.
- Bring something from home. This is acceptable and often reassuring in helping the child with the initial adjustment to school. This item may be a treasured blankie, teddy bear, or even a pacifier.
- Clearly state to your child where you will be and when you will return. It may also be helpful to discuss what will happen when you are reunited.
- Maintain a clear good-bye routine. This should include prompting the child that you are leaving, and then give a kiss and hug or any ritual that is comfortable for you. Be consistent with the same ritual each day as well as using it at home.
- Once you tell your child you are leaving, it is important to follow through. Extending the good-bye with, "Ok, just one more kiss, and then I really have to go" tends to heighten anxiety rather than relieve it. Avoid sneaking away, as this seems to encourage children to become less trusting and makes the second day of school even harder.

Phone use is not allowed on carpool drop off or pick up. We kindly ask that you finish your calls in your car before escorting your child to and from school.

Remember the preschool staff is always here to provide support and assistance, making your child's first school days happy days.
